

~~SECRET~~~~SECRET~~APPENDIX "A"DRAFTPROPOSED N.I.A. DIRECTIVETHE DIRECTION, COORDINATION AND SUPERVISION OF THE OPERATIONS WHICH PRODUCE INTELLIGENCE RELATED TO THE NATIONAL SECURITYPART III: PROVISION FOR THE DIRECTION, COORDINATION AND SUPERVISION OF FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE RESEARCH

References: N.I.A. Directive No.
N.I.A. Directive No.
N.I.A. Directive No.

1. Paragraph 3 of N.I.A. Directive No. charged the Director of Central Intelligence with establishing for our approval and directing a program which would provide for the direction, coordination and supervision of the:

a. Determination of what intelligence is required by the Federal Government to insure the national security, and submission for N.I.A. approval of recurring statements of these requirements;

b. Collection and distribution of the related intelligence information;
and

c. Production and dissemination of the intelligence.

2. Policies and procedures relating to 1a above, were announced in N.I.A. Directive No. ; policies and procedures relating to 1b above, were announced in N.I.A. Directive No. .

3. The following policies and procedures relating to 1c above, are announced:

a. In order to discharge the dual responsibility of providing departmental intelligence and of furnishing the appropriate portion of the intelligence required to perform the national intelligence mission, each of our respective departmental intelligence agencies will:

(1) Establish and maintain a comprehensive research plan to provide for the production and dissemination of foreign intelligence

~~SECRET~~~~SECRET~~

~~SECRET~~

required to meet its own departmental needs and its assigned responsibilities in accordance with the National Essential Elements of Information (NEEI);

(2) Maintain and operate the necessary research facilities so as to execute its research plan; and

(3) Conform to the coordinating policies and procedures established pursuant to subparagraphs b, c and d below.

b. The Director of Central Intelligence will direct and supervise the coordination of:

(1) Our several departmental research plans, the research plans of any central operating services which may be established pursuant to paragraph 3c of the President's letter of 22 January 1946; and such research plans as may be developed by other agencies of the Executive Branch in discharge of their authorized intelligence responsibilities related to the national security;

(2) The assignment of research tasks to carry out the plans;

(3) The use of facilities by the research agencies so as to minimize undesirable duplication and promote efficiency; and

(4) The dissemination among all departments and agencies of the Executive Branch of intelligence required by them for the performance of their authorized intelligence functions related to the national security.

c. Each of our respective departments will furnish to the Director of Central Intelligence such facilities, personnel and assistance, and make available to him such funds, as he may require in the performance of the mission herein assigned to him.

d. The Director of Central Intelligence will determine which agencies of the Executive Branch additional to those of our own departments and the Federal Bureau of Investigation are appropriate to participate in the research activity, and will arrange with the head of each appropriate department or agency for its participation.

~~SECRET~~

SECRET

SECRET

g. The coordinating functions herein assigned will be entirely separate and apart from the functions of any central operational services which may have been or may in future be established.

h. The State, War and Navy Departments, the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and the Director of Central Intelligence will take the steps necessary to implement and carry out the foregoing policies and procedures.

SECRET

SECRET